DESCRIPTION

- They are made with sandblasting surface treatment which provides an elegant upscale look and feel. Also, the sparkle effect on the surface makes them unique and scratch resistant.
- This puller's U-shaped design creates a large hole for easy one-finger operation.
- Ideal for outdoor bags like hiking bags, tactical bags, and commuter bags, as well as skiing and snowboarding jackets and backpacks.
- Last but not least, we apply safety stock system for all of our T3 line ups which leads to shortened shipping time.

Whether you're hiking, camping, skiing, or just commuting to work, this puller is the perfect way to keep your bag closed and secure.
